Using the platform 'Mandarin Time' was a good choice because it breaks down big tests like HSK4 into smaller pieces of work you can do with ease. You can learn a lot of useful vocabulary and sentence patterns through it - and I would absolutely recommend it, especially if you're looking for a studying structure for your HSK level test or are just interested in Chinese culture in general. The oral classes are good too, and the teachers are helpful, not stressful. Special thanks to Miss Valerie Kwan for her teaching and a satisfying experience overall.

I highly recommend Mandarin Time School where Valerie has been patiently teaching me to HSK 3 and 4 standard for most of the past year. Aside from the personalised teaching and mentoring, Mandarin Time stands out due to its high quality learning resources, including an extremely well constructed and easy to follow self-paced course. The school is conveniently located in Central Hong Kong, a short walk from the IFC and MTR lines. I feel that during my time learning here, I have received the help and support that I need to tackle this challenging language. As well as regular classes, Mandarin Time also hosts a variety of social events which are great for networking and practicing the language while also experiencing Chinese culture. Thanks to all at Mandarin Time for the great support!
